

Author Conflict of Interest Statements

Author Name	Topics Authored	Conflicts of Interest
Saleh Aldasouqi, MD	Diabetes insipidus, Hyperprolactinemia, Pheochromocytoma	Dr. Aldasouqi has received research support from Eli Lilly, Metrika and Amylin, and has in the last 24 months received speaker's honoraria from Pfizer, Merck, and Takeda.
Charles Bellows, MD, FACS	Cholecystitis, Cholelithiasis, Enuresis (childhood)	Dr. Bellows is a consultant for and has received research support from LifeCell. He also teaches for Covidien.
Kimberly Brown, MD	Hepatocellular cancer	Dr. Brown is on the Speakers Bureau for Schering Plough, Roche, Gilead, and Bayer/Onyx. She is on the Advisory Board of the Chronic Liver Disease Foundation and receives research support from Roche, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Schering Plough, and Bayer/Onyx.
Josephine R. Fowler, MD, MS	Ovarian tumor (benign), Ovarian tumor (malignant)	Dr. Fowler is on the Speakers bureaus of Merck and GlaxoSmithKline for HPV, though has not received any payments within 2009.
Michael Frost, MD	Alcohol intoxication and poisoning, Alcohol withdrawal, Fungal Skin infections, Hepatitis (alcoholic)	Dr. Frost receives speaking honoraria from Reckitt-Benkiser.
Ved Gossain, MD	Cushing's syndrome, Diabetes insipidus	Dr. Gossain has received grants from Eli Lilly and Co., Metrika Inc., Sunnyvale CA, and has received speaker's honoraria from Merck, Novo-nordisk, and Pfizer in the last 24 months. All of these honoraria are related to speaking on topics related to diabetes mellitus, not diabetes insipidus).
Alan H. Hall, MD	Poisoning: Cyanide	Dr. Hall is a paid consultant to the manufacturer of the Cyanokit(R) (Hydroxocobalamin 5 grams) cyanide antidote (Merck Serono, Lyon, France) and has been a consultant to various prior U.S. distributors of this antidote.
Suzanne Hecht, MD	Diving injury and decompression sickness	Dr. Hecht has received a grant funded by the National Football League Charities.
Jay Herman, MD	Immune thrombocytopenia purpura	Dr. Herman has received consultant fees and speaker honoraria from CSL Behring in the past three years, with the total amount not exceeding $10,000.
Walter Kraft, MD, MS	Asthma (chronic management), Neonatal abstinence syndrome	Dr. Kraft is a paid consultant to Merck Research Labs and has received research grants from Merck Research Labs, Schering Plough Research Institute, and Bristol Myers Squibb. While most of these relationships do not involve Asthma medications, some sponsors do market asthma medications.

Stephen Krieger, MD	Multiple sclerosis	Dr. Krieger is on the advisory boards for and receives educational lectures honoraria from Bayer Pharmaceuticals, Biogen Idec, EMD Serono, Novartis, and Teva Neuroscience.
Michele L. Matthews, PharmD, RPh	Back pain (low, chronic)	Dr. Matthews is on the speakers' bureau for PriCara and receives financial support from this company.
Jennifer L. Middleton, MD	Motion sickness	Dr. Middleton currently receives funding (5% salary support and study costs) for a Randomized Clinical Trial from the AAFP Foundation. She has also received payment as a consultant for the NJAFP's recent expert panel convened to develop a CME monograph (not-for-profit) on treatment-resistant hypertension in African-Americans.
Suzanne Mitchell, MD, MS	Non-ulcer dyspepsia	Dr. Mitchell is a non-product speaker for Merck & Co, and provides speaker programs on relationship-centered care.
Lee Morrow, MD	Ethylene glycol toxicity, Histoplasmosis, Methanol Poisoning	Dr. Morrow receives research grant support from Pfizer and Wyeth. He is on the advisory board for Schering Plough and serves as a consultant to CR Bard, Inc.
Mark Packer, MD, FACS	Cataract	Dr. Packer is a consultant to Abbott Medical Optics, Advanced Vision Science, Bausch & Lomb Surgical, Candeo Clinical/Science Communications, Carl Zeiss Inc., Gerson Lehman Group, Inc., Ista Pharmaceuticals, iTherapeutix, Inc., Vistakon Johnson & Johnson Visioncare, Leerink Swann & Company, Sirion Therapeutics, Inc., Transcend Medical, Inc., TrueVision Systems, Inc., Visiogen, Inc., Vision Care Inc., and WaveTec Vision Systems. He is also a lecturer for General Electric, Endo Optiks, Inc., and Synermed Communications, as well as an equity owner of TrueVision Systems, Inc., Visiogen, Inc., and WaveTec Vision Systems.
Krupa Pandey, MD	Multiple sclerosis	Dr. Pandey is a consultant for Bayer Pharmaceuticals and Pfeizer Pharmaceuticals.
David Webner, MD	Female athletic triad syndrome, Enuresis (childhood), Knee injury (ligamentous), Shoulder pain evaluation, Shoulder pain (rotator cuff injury)	Dr. Webner is a sponsored speaker for Genzyme Corporation and their product Synvisc viscosupplementation.